

World
Home
Fifteen Cents in July 1933

WALTER BIGGS ART

Edith Wharton
Roland

Sin: By L. L. Van de Walle
PHILADELPHIA

Press Release

May 13, 2024

Walter Biggs

WWW.WALTERBIGGSART.COM

Walter Biggs' published art (images) in magazines and books have been assembled in this website to allow the public to see over 1,000 works of art by Walter Biggs created over a 60-year period. The portfolio has been collected and curated by Ed Smith of Roanoke, Virginia.
The website is offered as a free educational platform.

ED SMITH
CURATOR

Walter Biggs was among the first artists inducted into the Society of Illustrators Hall of Fame. The first artist inducted into the Hall of Fame was Norman Rockwell, with Walter Biggs being honored shortly thereafter. Walter's art was in such high demand that the publishers of the most reputable national magazines and first addition books chose to use his original art over a six-decade period, beginning in 1905 until 1954.

Learn more about Biggs at: walterbiggsart.com/history

CONTACT INFORMATION:
Ed@RoanokeVirginia.com
(540) 353-2800

1051

IMAGES